

Lift up your name and praise for all glory honor and worship There is no one like you in all the earth. your goodness, your mercy and your love are beyond measure. I want to pause and acknowledge your sovereignty and kindness in every... You have been so faithful, Lord. Every moment you have watched over me and provided for my needs, even when I... Recognize it. Your plans are always perfect. and I trust that what you have promised to your children. you will bring to pass because your word is true and unchanging. You are the God who keeps every covenant. all my devotion and trust. Lord Jesus. I know that as long as my eyes stay fixed on you, I can firm no matter what storms come my way My life feels overwhelming when the winds of difficulty blow. waves of uncertainty crash against me. I am safe. Because you are my anchor with you at the center of my If no storm can shake me, I am confident that even if the war... rise around me I will not drown for you hold me above waves. When the fires of trial burn, I will be consumed because your protection surrounds me. you on my safe place, my refuge, and my... as long as I keep my focus on you. can rise above every challenge and find peace in your presence. today, father. I come before you and humbly ask that you turn your face toward me. Look upon me with favour, Lord. let your peace fill my heart. I'm deeply grateful for the you have shown me.